

An International Research Study
Achieving MDGs 4 and 5 by 2015

WOMEN'S EMPOWERMENT
HEALTHCARE IMPROVEMENT
DIGITAL SOLIDARITY

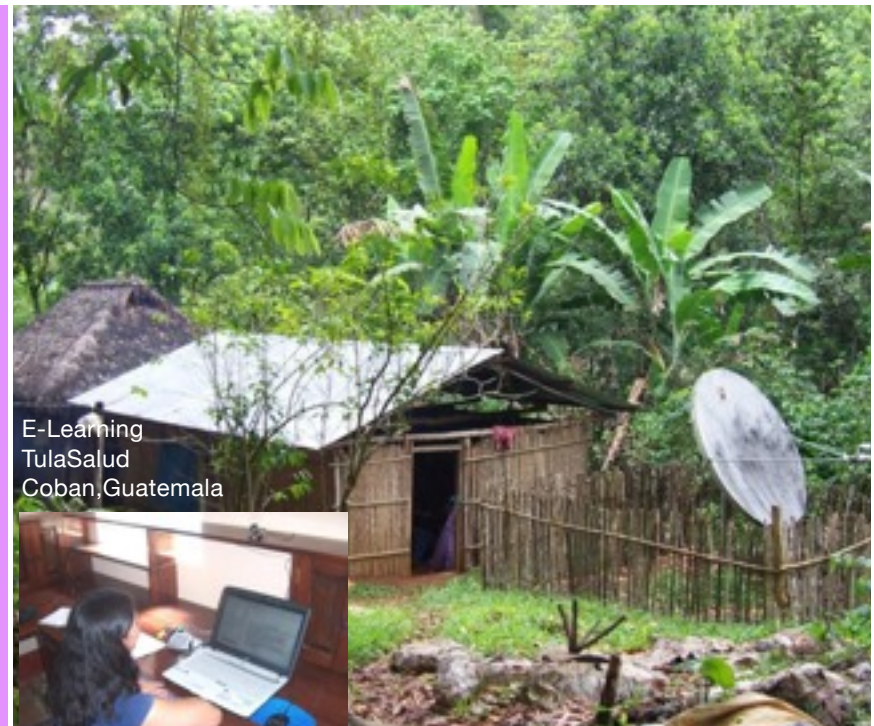

Millennia 2015 members and WeHealth Partners

Women and eHealth
WeHealth

www.millennia2015.org

- The Destree Institute (Belgium)
- UNESCO
- International Organization of the Francophonie
- The Millennium Project
- Advanced Development for Africa - ADA
- ONG AFAR (Mali)
- ZMQ (India)
- TulaSalud (Guatemala)
- NGO Dimol (Niger)
- Save Women And Nurture (USA)

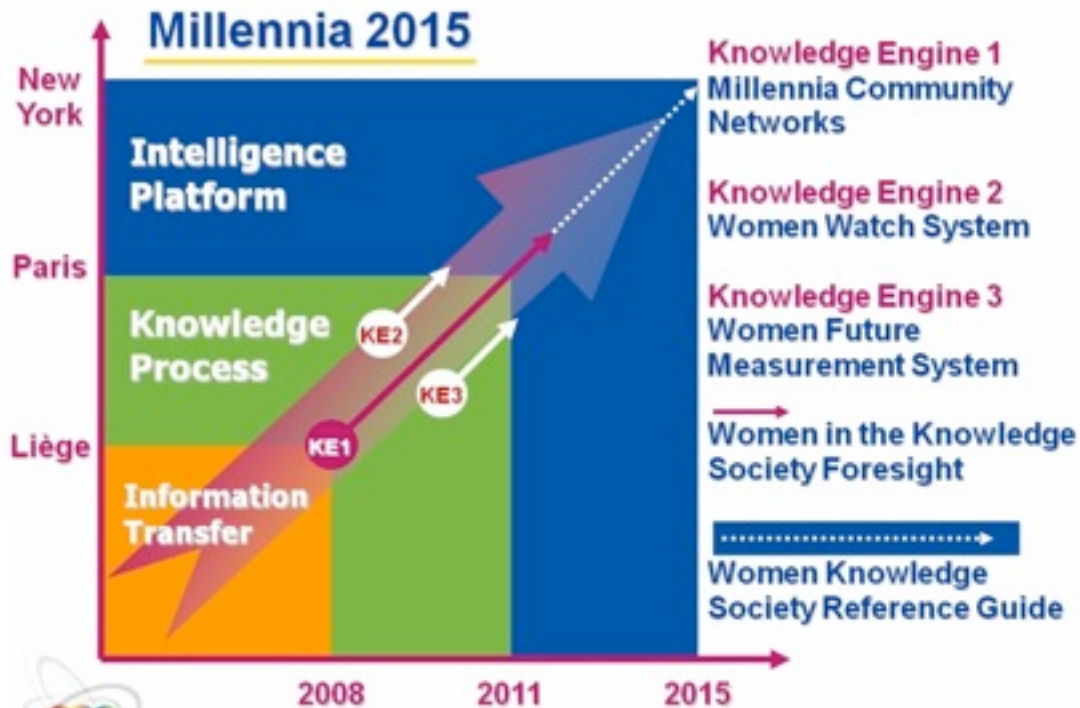

NGO in operational relations with UNESCO

A Foresight Research Process and International Conferences

2008 - 2015 From Information Transfer to an Intelligence Platform dedicated to Women Actors of Development
Liège 2008 → UNESCO - Paris 2011 → United Nations - New York 2015

Women and eHealth Objectives

Women's empowerment to access and use ICTs for health in their local communities

Healthcare improvement through the expansion of eLearning for local nurses

Digital solidarity to support women facing conflicts and natural disasters

* ICT : Information and Communication Technology

Expected Results at the upcoming Millennia2015 International Conference, Paris, UNESCO - December 2011

WeHealth Country Profiles

WeHealth Knowledge Base

The first compilation of local case studies, projects and publications

WeHealth Virtual Library

Photographs and videos illustrating women of all ages using ICT to improve healthcare

Contact :

Dr Véronique THOUVENOT

Head of Millennia2015 «Women and eHealth» International Working Group

www.millennia2015.org/Women_and_eHealth

e-mail : thouvenot.veronique@millennia2015.org