

Women as actors of development for the global challenges

International Conference

7-8 March 2008

Convention Centre
Liège
(Wallonia, Belgium)

Namur, February 10, 2007.

Dear Madam, dear Sir,

The Destree Institute, pluralist European research centre based in Wallonia and its partners (www.institut-destree.eu), organize the international conference Millennia 2015, "Women as actors of development for the global challenges".

The conference, introduced by the Secretary-General of the Secretary-General of the World Federation of United Nations Associations Pera Wells (WFUNA), will be held in two days, Friday 7th March (plenary sessions and workshops) and Saturday 8th March (plenary sessions, workshops and memorandum) in the Liège Convention Centre.

The main message will be to advance the key role of women in contemporary society, to empower them, to encourage entrepreneurship and to fully acknowledge their responsibility in technological development for global human benefit. The main issues are education, employment and enterprise, environment and health, information and communication, rights and citizenship, culture and creation (www.millennia2015.org). The participants will have an opportunity of sharing their activities and networks in the interactive exhibition.

The final programme of the 2008 session of Millennia 2015 is proposed online, as well as the registration form:

- Invitation:

It is our pleasure to invite you to participate in Millennia 2015. The registration fees are 35 euros per day and 60 euros for two days. The Destree Institute, an NGO, will not in any case pay for the travel and accommodation of the participants who are not part of the speakers as published in the online programme of the conference.

Looking forward to your participation in Millennia 2015,

Best regards,

Marie-Anne Delahaut
